

Bank Worker

Location: London

Salary: Competitive hourly rate plus generous sleep-in payments

Looking for flexible work? Want to choose your own hours? Interested in working across a range of services? Able to commit to working regularly?

If you are a warm and caring person that enjoys working with others, likes to have fun and to be busy and is motivated to see others achieve, then come and be a Yarrow Bank Worker. Yarrow is passionate about supporting people with learning disabilities to grow and flourish. We support people across West London to have active and creative lives at home and in the community. We are looking for people to join our organisation who share our passion.

You will support people with all aspects of their daily life. You will work in a small team and sometimes on your own. The work can be challenging but it is very rewarding. As one of our current Workers said:

“I don’t think there is any other job where people wait at the door for you when you get back from annual leave – it’s so rewarding”.

You don’t need a great deal of experience in health and social care, as we are looking for people who are motivated, have the right values and are open to learning. We will provide you with great training and you will definitely develop a wide range of new skills.

Yarrow Bank Worker

ABOUT THE WORK

As a Yarrow Bank Worker, you will support people with learning disabilities in their homes and the local community. Yarrow's key purpose is to enable the people we support to grow and flourish and to have the same rights and opportunities as non-disabled people.

Being a Bank Worker is a very special job because it involves working with vulnerable adults; therefore we are looking for people with the right values and characteristics. These characteristics are outlined in the Person Specification and the Job Description. These give more detail about the kind of people we are looking for and the skills you will need.

At Yarrow we want the people we support to do as much for themselves as possible and to learn new skills so that they can remain independent. Some people need support with all aspects of their intimate care such as toileting, bathing and dressing. To become a Bank Worker within Yarrow you must be able to support people with these needs in a dignified and respectful way.

At Yarrow we support people 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Bank Workers work shifts which cover all hours of the day and night, including weekends and bank holidays. Shifts vary in length; generally they last for 8 hours and can take place in the morning, afternoon, evening and through the night. Below is a description of a typical shift:

Time	Activity
07.00	Arrive on shift
07.15	Read Handover Notes
07.30	Support service user to wake up
07.45	Support service user to shower and dress
08.45	Support service user to prepare and eat breakfast

09.30	Support service user to travel to college using the bus
10.00	Support service user to attend dance class at college
12.00	Go shopping with service user to buy food for lunch
12.30	Return to the service users home
13.00	Support service user to make lunch
13.30	Support service user to take their medication
14.00	Complete petty cash book and account for money spent in the shop
14.30	Write up handover notes for colleagues and update service user records if needed
14.45	Handover with colleague
15.00	Finish shift

We will provide you with an intensive induction in order to equip you with the skills and knowledge you need to do your job well.

If you want to progress your career in Yarrow after becoming competent as a Bank Worker you may want to apply for a permanent position as a Support Worker or seek promotion to become a Deputy Manager and then a Manager. Yarrow is a great place to build a career in Health and Social Care.

JOB DESCRIPTION

1 CARE AND SUPPORT

1.1 You will support people with all aspects of their personal care. This could involve supporting someone to bathe, brush their teeth, to dress, to go to the toilet, to take their medication and to eat. At Yarrow, we undertake all these tasks with great respect for the person we are supporting.

1.2 Everyone we support has a Support Plan. This plan outlines how the person wants to be supported. You will need to follow the instructions in this plan so that you deliver support in a person centred way.

1.3 As well as a Support Plan, the service user will have other plans such as: Health Action Plans and Positive Behaviour Plans. These plans are very important because they outline procedures that you need to follow when delivering support.

1.4 Teaching people new skills in their home and in the community for example: cooking, shopping, doing laundry, cleaning, travelling. At Yarrow we use a training method called 'Active Support'. You will receive training on how to support people using Active Support.

1.5 Many of the people we support have limited communication. You will learn how to communicate with people and support them to develop their communication skills.

1.6 Some of the people we support have behaviours that challenge us and we support them with Positive Behaviour Support. It is very important that you understand a person's Positive Behaviour Support Plan and that you implement this in your work.

1.6 You may be asked to help out our key workers. That means you may support them to organise a person's life and to help develop their person centred plan and other plans such as holiday plans.

1.7 You will administer medication according to Yarrow's policies and instructions provided by health professionals.

2 ADMINISTRATION

2.1 When working in people's homes you will need to complete daily documentation including: logs, monitoring forms, incident forms, medication charts etc.

2.2 Some of the people we support have complex needs and therefore a greater amount of recording is required. If this is the case, you will need to complete more detailed records.

2.3 You may need to assist in updating plans such as health action plans.

2.4 You may need to liaise with a range of people including: families, health professionals and other key people.

2.5 You will handle money as part of your role and you will be expected to keep records and receipts to account for the money you have handled

3 KEEPING PEOPLE AND YOURSELF SAFE

3.1 To keep people safe we write Risk Assessments. These outline how we support people safely. You must always follow the instructions outlined in risk assessments

3.3 You must be familiar with Yarrow's Health and Safety Policy and your role in implementing it. You must be vigilant and report any health and safety concerns to the manager

3.4 You will be trained in how to identify the signs of abuse in vulnerable adults. You must always report your concerns if you feel that a service user is being abused or intimidated.

3.5 You must never do anything that puts you, the people we support or other colleagues at risk.
